Mrs. McCormick Secretly Married

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—After an absence of eight years, Mrs. Harold F. McCorof Chicago opera this afternoon by speaking on "Civic Opera" at a luncheon the Chicago Association of Commerce. This was her first appearance in public here since she went to Switzerland to live eight years ago.

Announcement that Mrs. McCormick was to speak brought a crowd which filled the ball room of the Hotel La Salle, but only those who were near the speaker's table heard the low voiced fifteen minute address which Mrs. McCormick read. The others had to content themleader and her daughter, Miss Murie! McCormick, who is soon to go on the stage, according to a recent announce-stage, according to a recent announcement.

Curling up from her fingers a smoled halo encircled the head of Miss Muriel, the first woman to smoke at an Association of Commerce teneson. She received the startled attention of the packed hall. Nonchalantly prehing back her coafee cup she produced her gold eigarette case, lighted a digarette and pured away with practiced air.

Mrs. McCornick was applauded when introduced, and several times afterward. One of the rounds of applause was caused by her statement that the Chicago Opera Company was the best organization of its sort in the world. Another came when she made the statement for which every one was waiting. The statement was:

"I wish to take this occasion to express my unqualified approval of Miss Garden as director of the Chicago Opera Company."

Mrs. McCormick spoke enthusiastically

"In making the Chicago Opera, which Irwin M. Cassels, Miami Mer-The making the Chicago Opera, which has been growing in our midst for ten years, a civic organization," she said, "we are doing something which has never been done in the history of opera. We are proving again that Chicago spirit is no myth, but that it is The driving power which assures great achievement.

"You have planned for civic opera

"You have planned for civic opera with 500 citizen guarantors, each guaranteeing an amount not to exceed $1.000 a year for five years. I heartily approve this plan.
"Last spring in six weeks you obtained 244 guarantors. This was a epiendid accomplishment. My great hope is that Chicago will rise to the opportunity and now within a short period, by individual effort, bring the total of 500 signed guarantors. That will assure the permanency of civic opera in Chicago."

At one point of her talk Mrs. McCor-mick described opera as a "biological necessity." "F om my point of view, gained through years of experience," she said, "opera is a proof of culture and therefore not to be considered as a luxury, but to be recognized as a bio-logical necessity for human development and measured by culture. Where there is no culture there is no actual develop-ment."
